

INDIGENOUS COMPANY OF THE YEAR AWARD CRITERIA

The Indigenous Company of the Year Award recognises organisations that are leading the way in encouraging the greater participation of Indigenous Australians in the welding and fabrication industry, as well as Indigenous-led, owned and operated businesses. Organisations will be judged on criteria such as innovation, quality assurance, market success, corporate social responsibility, health and safety, sustainability, and training and development of employees.

You will need the following information on hand to complete your online entry form. The online entry form can be accessed via: <https://weldaustralia.com.au/2022-welding-excellence-awards/>

Please note: the online entry form cannot be saved. It must be fully completed in the one sitting.

Contact Details

First Name	Last Name	Title
Company Name	Email Address	Phone Number
Street Address

Overview (500 words maximum)

Please provide an overview of the company. This should include details of the company's history; a summary of services, capabilities, sectors and clients; and any major achievements. It should also summarise why the company deserves to win the award.

Photos

Please upload at least three photos. These photos could feature your facilities, team, projects or products. These photos will be used for promotional purposes, including but not limited to: PowerPoint presentations at event ceremonies, in Weld Australia's newsletters, EDMs, magazines, social media and website. By uploading photos, you confirm that you have the permission of all people photographed for their use in promotional purposes. Please note that the files must be either a JPEG or a PNG. The file must also be over 1MG in size, but the larger the better.

Logo

Please upload your company's logo. Again, this logo will be used for promotional purposes and must be supplied as a high-resolution format JPEG, PNG or EPS.

AWARD CRITERIA

Innovation (300 words maximum)

Outline how your company is innovative. Consider factors such as automation, robotics, Industry 4.0 and the implementation of innovative techniques, processes and procedures.

Participation of Indigenous Australia (300 words maximum)

Outline how your company works to encourage the greater participation of Indigenous Australians in the welding and fabrication industry.

Market Success (300 words maximum)

Outline how your company has enjoyed market success. This might include sustained growth over years, major project work, and long-term clients.

MORE INFO

Michelle Bignold
National Manager, Sales and Marketing
0437 106 726 or m.bignold@weldaustralia.com.au

INDIGENOUS COMPANY OF THE YEAR AWARD CRITERIA

Corporate Social Responsibility (300 words maximum)

Outline your company's activities and achievements in corporate social responsibility, including (but not limited to) community engagement, diversity, volunteering, employee policies, and charitable giving.

Health and Safety (300 words maximum)

Outline your company's health and safety performance, including how you keep your employees safe while they are at work.

Sustainability (300 words maximum)

Outline your company's commitment to environmental sustainability. Consider factors such as an environmental management policy, waste reduction, recycling, and investments in renewable energy, electric vehicles and sensor lighting.

Training and Development of Employees (300 words maximum)

Outline how your company invests in the training and development of all its employees. Consider factors such as training budgets and allowances, succession planning, apprentice and trainee programs, and on the job training.

Other Qualities and Pursuits (300 words maximum)

Please include any other information that may be relevant to the award, such as the company's involvement in community activities, industry activities, and other awards and achievements.

